The City of Santa Rosa is the seat of Sonoma County and the center of trade, government, commerce, and medical facilities for the North Bay. With approximately 181,000 residents, Santa Rosa is the fifth largest city in the San Francisco Bay Area. We boast many attractions associated with larger cities – including a symphony, performing arts center, theater, and internationally recognized restaurants.

A GREAT PLACE TO CALL HOME

The surrounding area is home to over a hundred wineries and vineyards, 16 golf courses, beautiful parks, and the spectacular Northern California coastline. We value educational opportunities for our community and boast an excellent school system, a community college, and a state university.
